

FIELD ENGINEER / Service Delivery Manager

Securitas:

In addition to static and mobile surveillance, Securitas has become the market leader for Security Technology/ICT services for just under a decade. Thanks to a complete "converged" Security offering, Securitas manages to differentiate itself from the other players in the market

Tasks:

As a Field Engineer, you will be part of larger teams to realize new security solutions at the customers Headquarter.

Your focus will be on configuring and integrating existing and new Security Systems within the customer's infrastructure.

You will work mostly on site at the customer, but can also be engaged to analyze and solve problems remotely from our headquarters in Brussels.

This job includes a wide variety of tasks:

As a Field Engineer, you will perform installations, maintenance and repairs on your customer's high-tech solutions.

- You will mainly be involved in installing, configuring and correcting the Security systems and follow up the ticketing system.
- You will provide your customer with training on the installed technology.
- You will perform preventive and corrective maintenance
- You can act in a coordinated way within the engineering team
- You report directly to the Engineering / Service Manager
- You are an important and visible link, thus you determine to a large extent the image of Securitas with the customer
- The daily interaction with the customer allows you to discover commercial opportunities

Your profile:

- You hold a degree in a technical field
- Knowledge of CCTV, access control, ... are a big plus
- Knowledge of data networks (LAN, WAN, Wireless...)
- You are perfectly bilingual (Dutch/English) / (French/English)
- You are solution oriented, a real team player and like to work hands-on with an ever growing responsibility
- Great motivation and eager to take initiatives to learn

We offer you:

A challenging job in a dynamic and fast-growing department of a professional employer, where no day is the same.

Within Securitas we are strongly committed to the development of our staff, and we appreciate initiative. On top of that you can count on an excellent salary and associated benefits, in line with your abilities and experience.
